PAARL, SOUTH AFRICA 2015

$12.99

QUOTED AT $19.00*

YOU SAVE $6.01

"This Sauvignon Blanc with a touch of Chenin Blanc and Nouvelle is a lively wine with tropical fruit, pineapple and guavas and finishes with gooseberry and cut-grass crispness. A full, slightly more complex wine to be enjoyed at sundown or with chicken, fish or pasta."

*Winemaker's notes

"I have always been a fan of South African Sauvignon Blanc, from region to region they are stylistically different. Paarl offers sweet tropical fruits along with a steely lemongrass note and crisp refreshing acidity. Excellent!"

"A round, fleshy red, offering aromas of flowers, cherry, licorice and tar. Firm, but exhibiting fine harmony, this should be approachable soon. Sweet fruit and mineral mark the finish. Best from 2014 through 2027."

92 POINTS Wine Spectator Online, 2012

"One of the best Barolos of the year, Coste di Rose is a natural beauty with gorgeous, thick extraction and perfectly balanced aromas of blueberries, violets, almond paste, sweet spice and root beer. The wine shows impressive heft and density, yet it is elegant and polished at the same time with finely textured tannins. Cellar this delightful wine ten years or more."

"Our Three Graces Proprietary Red is the perfect creative expression of the bounties of the Napa Valley. The color is an inky garnet hue and the nose opens to aromas of carob, red fruits and juicy plum. A creamy and complex core of chocolate, spice and purple fruits elevate the palate. The textures are juicy, and vibrant with tannins that are well integrated and perfectly approachable alone or with food."

*Winemaker's notes

"Aromas of black cherry and brambleberry fruit and black plum. Inky and dark in color. Still showing its youth with a touch of austerity, this will soften with age. I would suggest decanting for a few hours. Very good!"
